GENERAL INFORMATION ON EACH EXCHANGE DESTINATION

★ PLEASE NOTE AUGUST ARRIVAL DATES

FRENCH LANGUAGE DESTINATIONS:

★ Arrival: 2nd & 3rd weeks of August

Belgium is an ideal exchange destination. The country is small and travel by families to neighbouring France, Germany, Netherlands and Luxembourg is very common. The spoken French is very standard. Families are close, warm and welcoming, and applicants are 14 to 17 years old, with the older students being quite self-directed and used to more social freedom. This is a 2-month program for secondary students.

France provides large numbers of applicants from all regions of France, including some at the collège level (our grades 6 through 9). Applicants are 13 to 17 years of age. The younger candidates are accustomed to close family life and parental direction, the older students are more self-directed.

This is a 2-month program for elementary students and a 3-month program for secondary students.

Switzerland (French) provides applicants who are 16 or 17 years old, as well as students at the middle school level (our grades 7 through 9). The older students are generally quite self-directed and accustomed to more social freedoms. A very standard French is spoken in the six cantons (counties), including Geneva.

This is a 2-month program for elementary students and a 3-month program for secondary students.

INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE DESTINATIONS:

★ Arrival: 3rd and 4th weeks of August

Italy usually provides candidates who are 15 to 17 years of age, from throughout Italy. The family is generally the centre of the social structure and students are dependent on their parents for advice. Students from Italy are very social and enjoy gatherings with friends and extended family. Families can be quite traditional, and enjoy sharing their culture and customs with visitors.

Spain provides large numbers of candidates who are 14 to 16 years old. As with Italy, families are close and students are dependent on their parents for advice on most matters. Students are generally very social and enjoy large group activities in an urban area. Applicants are from all regions of Spain.

Germany (Nordrhein-Westfalen and Baden-Württemberg) provides large numbers of applicants who are 15 to 17 years old. They are responsible, self-disciplined and mature, and their level of English is very good. Students from Germany adapt quite easily to our culture and are generally open to different activities.
